

CANTON BULLDOGS ROMP IN SNOW. Jim Thorpe took his football team to the Phillies' Park yesterday afternoon for the final practice before meeting the Union A. A. team today. The three Indians on the team are Guyon, Thorpe and Calne (left to right). Ledger Photo Service.

ON WHICH SIDE OF THE FENCE WILL HE FALL? Former King Constantino of Greece was photographed while straddling a fence in Switzerland. Wide World Photo.

DOING HIS BIT FOR THE TUBERCULOSIS FUND. Coppie, a Belgian police dog, selling Christmas seals in front of the New York Library. Underwood & Underwood.

MOTHER GOOSE PARTY AT WAYNE. The Saturday Club gave a pageant yesterday which dealt with the rhymes and doings of the children of years ago. The "peppermint stick girls" were Miss Dorothy Park and Mrs. P. H. Sellman. Miss Mona Whitlock was "Queen of Hearts." Ledger Photo Service.

OTHER GUESTS AT CATERPILLAR LUNCHEON. It was given yesterday at the Emergency Aid Cafeteria by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wright Crawford. Left to right in the group are Mr. Skinner, Mrs. George Horace Lorimer, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Harold Ellis Yarnall and Mrs. Howard W. Pincoast. Ledger Photo Service.

HE LIKES THE NORTH POLE. Captain Robert A. Bartlett, of the steamship Chateau Thierry, who made six trips with Peary to the North Pole region. He hopes to get another northern journey. Ledger Photo Service.

WARREN G. HARDING. A new character study of the President-elect, as he smoked a cigar on his arrival in Virginia from the Panama trip. Underwood & Underwood.

THE REV. WILLIAM B. FORNEY. of the Philadelphia Sabbath Association, discusses Sunday observance in an interview on the editorial page.

"WILD BILL" DONOVAN TO MANAGE THE PHILS. His signature to the two-year contract was made in the presence of William F. Baker, president of the local National League team. Donovan started his baseball career in Fairmount Park. Ledger Photo Service.

CHRISTMAS SALE. The annual Christmas sale of the Dominican Guild Auxiliary is being held at 1411 Green street. Miss Marion Moore had charge of the doll department. Ledger Photo Service.

GUARDING HEALTH OF "THE LADIES." The "doctor" is M. Labussiere, of London, whose daily food is earned by looking after the welfare of the wax models. When photographed he was getting a few of the "ladies" ready for Christmas season work. Underwood & Underwood.

LOOKING OUT OF A SUBWAY EXIT. The photographer went down below the first landing of the exit on the north side of Market street at Juniper to get City Hall from a new viewpoint. The men, standing on the sidewalk, were watching him work and got on the negative. Ledger Photo Service.

MISS CATHERINE LISMAN at the Bal Boheme of the Three Arts Club held at the Rittenhouse Hotel last night. Ledger Photo Service.

THE YOUNGEST CONGRESSMAN. Clarence J. McLeod, from Michigan, is being referred to as the "Baby of the House." He is twenty-five years old. Wide World Photo.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

EXAMINING DYED YARN. Claud Zerby, 323 Lyceum street, Roxborough, matching the dyed yarns with samples, so that the proper shade is assured, at Anton Dorfner & Sons, 1324 Girard avenue. Ledger Photo Service.

CAPTAIN OF PENN'S BOXERS. He is Thomas O'Malley. Two professional boxers, Ray O'Malley and "Johnnie Mealy," are his brothers.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

THE "KING" OF AUTOMOBILE ROW. He is Charles Bunch, the reserve patrolman stationed at Broad and Race streets. Bunch has been on that corner for ten years of his nineteen in the police department. He is forty-six years old.

LONDON'S NEW LORD MAYOR. James Role in the regalia of his office. A lord mayor holds office for one year. International.

A QUEEN OF THE WEST. Miss Elizabeth Rosemary Lack, of Long Beach, Calif., who has been elected Queen of the Pilgrims' Pageant, to be held there. Wide World Photo.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS SARAH SMITH 423 Locust street Philadelphia